Field of the Invention The present invention relates to racks for supporting golf clubs in a golf bag. 2. Description of the Related Art In the prior art, golf bags support golf clubs in golf bags by means of a single, vertically extending rack that is located proximate the top of the golf bag. Typically, the rack has a plurality of spaced-apart slots for receiving the golf clubs such that a golfer can place his or her golf clubs into the rack in a single direction (the vertical direction). In the prior art, there have been prior art golf bags that allow the golfer to place his or her golf clubs into the golf bag in either a vertical direction or a horizontal direction. There is a need in the art for a golf bag that efficiently, quickly, and easily allows a golfer to place his or her golf clubs into the golf bag.
